

The eyes of the Lord are in every place,
Keeping watch on the evil and the good.

Proverbs 15:3 (NIV)

God Sees Everything

1 Kings 21:1-28; 22:29-37; 2 Kings 9:30-37; 10:11

"I want to plant my vegetables there," said Ahab, the king of Israel. He was looking at a vineyard near his palace, but the land wasn't for sale.

"I can't sell it, Your Majesty," said Naboth, the owner. "It's the inheritance God gave my family."

Ahab was sad. He couldn't have what he wanted. So, he went to bed upset and angry. When evil Queen Jezebel heard that her husband was upset, she came up with a terrible plan. She sent instructions to the city leaders to make up a lie about Naboth and have him killed.

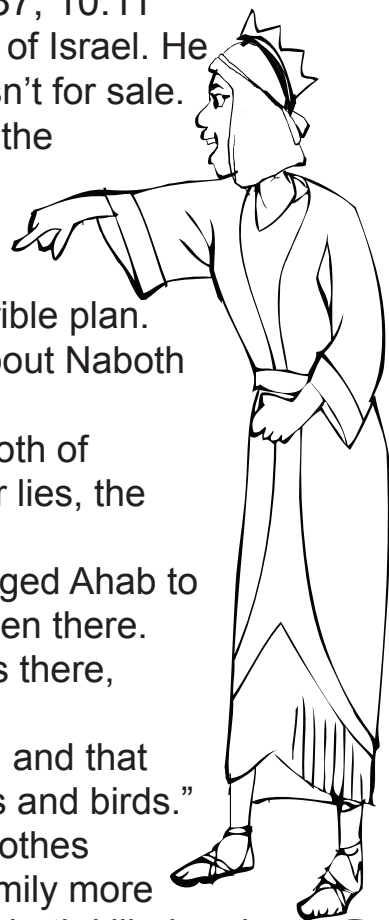

The leaders obeyed the letter and accused innocent Naboth of saying bad things about God and the king. Because of their lies, the people stoned Naboth to death.

When Jezebel heard that Naboth was dead, she encouraged Ahab to go and claim the land for himself so he could plant his garden there.

Ahab was excited and went to see the land. While he was there, Elijah the prophet met him with a message from God.

"You've killed a man and taken his land," said Elijah. "You and that queen are going to die. Your family will be food for the dogs and birds."

Hearing this, Ahab responded with humility. He tore his clothes and stopped eating food. God saw this and gave Ahab's family more time, but they never fully repented. Ahab and Jezebel were both killed and everything God had said about them came true.
