Faithful to God

Daniel 1

"I'm going to obey God even if it's hard," thought Daniel.

Many of the people in Judah stopped obeying God. They worshipped false gods. Because of this, God allowed the Babylonian army to capture people in Jerusalem and take all their stuff. Daniel and his friends were some of the prisoners who were hauled off to Babylon. They were far from home, but they chose to keep following the true God.

The king of Babylon chose Daniel and three of his friends for special training. He gave them delicious food from his own table, but there was a problem. This food was the type God had told the Jews, like Daniel, not to eat. Daniel wanted to obey God, so he spoke with the man in charge.

"Please let us eat vegetables and drink water instead," Daniel asked.

"No, you'd become too skinny," he replied. "I could get into trouble."

"How about a ten day test?" asked Daniel. "Let us try the vegetables."

The man in charge agreed and was surprised when Daniel and his friends looked healthier than the other guys. So he gave them the food they wanted.

God blessed Daniel and his friends. They learned faster and were wiser than all the other students. The king gave them important jobs in Babylon.

How can I be brave and obey God even when it is difficult?

I can be faithful.
God is looking for those who will be faithful, even when it's hard. He will help me.

Father,
Help me be faithful
in every situation.
