Jeremiah 29:13 (NIV)

Following a Star

Matthew 2

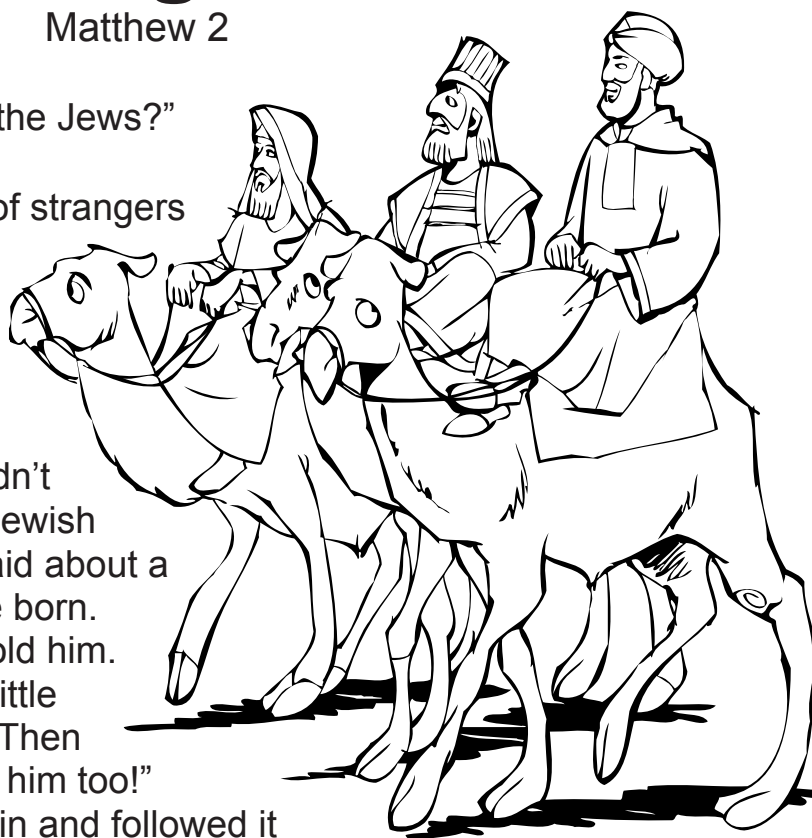

"Where is the newborn King of the Jews?" asked some wise men.

After Jesus was born, a group of strangers from the East arrived in Jerusalem. They had seen a star that meant a king was born, so they travelled a long way to see the new King of the Jews. They asked King Herod about it. He didn't like this news, but he asked the Jewish leaders what the prophets had said about a new king and where He would be born.

"Bethlehem is the place" they told him.

"Go to Bethlehem and find the little King," Herod told the wise men. "Then come tell me so I can go worship him too!"

The wise men saw the star again and followed it to the house where Jesus was. They worshipped Him and gave Him gifts of gold, valuable perfume and special spices. Then they went home without telling King Herod about it, because God warned them that Herod wanted to hurt the little King.
