He Calms the Storms

Mark 4:35-41

“Let’s go to the other side of the sea,” said Jesus.

It was getting late when Jesus finished teaching and told the disciples to cross the Sea of Galilee. As they were crossing the sea, a big storm began. The wind beat on the boat and the waves began to fill it with water. It got so bad the disciples (several of whom were fishermen with experience on the Sea of Galilee) thought they were going to all drown.

Meanwhile, Jesus had fallen asleep on a cushion in the back of the boat. The disciples woke Jesus.

“Teacher! Don’t you care?” they cried. “We’re about to drown!”

Jesus stood up and spoke to the storm. “Quiet! Be still!”

Immediately the winds and the waves obeyed Him. The sea lay quiet and still. Then Jesus asked the disciples, “Why are you afraid? Don’t you have any faith?”

“Who is He?” the terrified disciples asked each other. “Even the wind and the waves obey Him!”
