Matthew 6:33 (NIV)

Time with Jesus

Luke 10:38-42

“Jesus is here and we still have so much to do,” worried Martha.

Jesus was visiting the house of his friends Lazarus, Martha and Mary.

Martha was working hard in the kitchen and serving the people. She was worried about all the details. While she was rushing around, her sister, Mary, was sitting quietly, close to Jesus’ feet just listening and enjoying that He was there.

Martha didn’t like that she was doing all the work while Mary was just sitting there. She complained to Jesus about it.

“Lord,” Martha said. “Don’t you care that she’s making me do all the work? Tell her to help me!”

Jesus looked at her kindly and said, “Martha, Martha, You’re worried about so many things, but you only need one thing. Mary has found that best thing and nobody is going to take it from her.”

There is time for work, but time with Jesus is the best, and He enjoys having us with Him.

How do I do things with Jesus, not just for Him?

Time is important to God.
 Time spent with God is never wasted.

Lord, You are the most important for me.
