Jesus'
Parables

"Son, go to the vineyard," a father said. "It's time to work."

"No, Dad", responded the son. "I don't want to." But later, he changed his mind and went to work like his dad said.

The man also sent his other son to work.

"Yes, Dad! I'll go right away." responded the second son, but he never went.

Jesus shared this story with the religious leaders in Jerusalem.

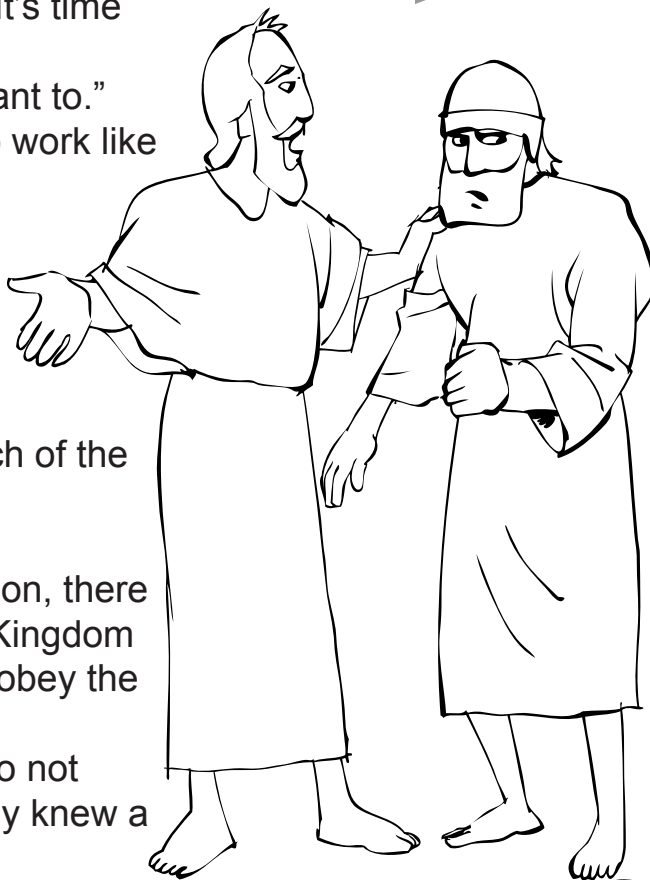

"What do you think?" Jesus asked. "Which of the sons obeyed their father?"

"The first," responded the leaders.

"That's right," said Jesus. "Just like that son, there are sinners and evildoers coming into the Kingdom of God before you because they hear and obey the message of repentance."

Jesus encouraged the religious leaders to not think they were right with God because they knew a lot about God's Word.

We become right with God through faith and we should obey what God's Word says with our actions; not just our words..
