Acts 9:34 (NIV)

Healed!

Acts 3-4

"Coins! Money for the poor, please!" cried the lame man. Peter and John, two of Jesus' disciples, saw the poor man as they went to pray in the temple. They stopped. As the lame man looked at them, he hoped to get something to help him. He had no idea what was coming!

"I don't have any money," began Peter. "But what I have, I give to you: In the name of Jesus of Nazareth, stand up and walk!"

In that moment, Peter held the man's hand and lifted him up. As he rose, he felt his legs become strong and he took a step. He could walk! He could run! He could jump! Jesus' had healed him!

With jumps and shouts, the man went into the temple praising God. The people gathered around to see what was happening. When they recognized the beggar who had been lame and sitting at the gate, they were amazed--He was healed!

"This isn't our power," explained Peter. "It is Jesus' power--the One you rejected."

The leaders in charge didn't like that they were preaching about Jesus so they arrested Peter and John and threw them in the jail. They told them not to teach about Jesus any more, but Peter and John were bold and knew they couldn't stop.

"Is it better to obey you or God?" asked Peter. "We will obey God."

With boldness the disciples continued teaching everyone about Jesus.
