

136 Salvation is for everyone

Acts 10

"God noticed your prayers and how you help the poor," an angel told Cornelius.

Cornelius was a Roman soldier, but he wanted to serve the true God. He regularly prayed and generously helped the poor. God noticed this and wanted Cornelius to hear how to be saved through Jesus. So, the angel told Cornelius to send for Peter, one of Jesus' disciples.

When Cornelius' messengers found Peter, God had already been getting Peter ready with a special message. Peter went with the messengers without any problems.

At Cornelius' house a big group was waiting to hear God's special message.

Cornelius told about the angel, and Peter wunderstood that God's message is for everyone who chooses to honor God. Peter explained who Jesus is and how He died and rose again.

When the people heard the message about Jesus, they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in other languages and praising God.

Peter and his friends were surprised but they realized that God was doing things His way. So they baptized Cornelius and his family and friends in the name of Jesus.

How am I looking for and obeying God?

When I search for God, I will find Him.

God responds to those who search for Him.

Father God, I look for You with all my heart.
